Prepared by the Virginia Commission on Youth

April 23, 2008

The Virginia Commission on Youth is a standing, bipartisan legislative commission of the General Assembly which, by mandate, provides a legislative forum in which complex issues may be explored and resolved. The Commission was enacted in 1989 and began operations in 1991. According to the Code of Virginia, the role and function of the Commission is "to study and provide recommendations addressing the needs of and services to the Commonwealth's youth and families." The Commission monitors the development of laws and policies in federal, state and local governments which impact youth and their families and contribute to the General Assembly's ability to make sound policy decisions based on well-studied and reasoned recommendations.

Office of the Governor/ Department of Social Services	Virginia Early Childhood Foundation (VECF) is a public-private partnership with a mission to provide collaborative leadership to foster Smart Beginnings for all young children in Virginia. As a nonprofit organization, the VECF provides grants, training and technical assistance to local communities to build their capacity to provide early childhood services. The Foundation was recommended by the Early Learning Council Task Force, which was charged with recommending strategies to improve Virginia's ability to provide early learning experiences to children from birth to age five. In making the recommendation, the Council cited the need for a state-level 501(c)(3) entity to lead an aggressive agenda to build the State's infrastructure for an effective early childhood system. In response, the Foundation was created in December 2005. VECF relies on the shared leadership of local councils to provide strategic planning, effective integration of programs and services, decision-making and accountability for local delivery, implementation and outcomes. Commission's involvement: Tracking	The VECF 2007 Annual Report, released September 29, is posted on the Smart Beginnings website, as well on the General Assembly Legislative Information System website as Report Document 223 (2007). The proposed 2009-2010 Biennial Budget appropriated to the Department of Social Services an allocation of $1.5 million over the biennium to support Virginia Early Childhood Foundation, with the goal of promoting programs that enhance the health, safety and well-being of Virginia's youth. Item 344-E#1 directs the Foundation to account for the expenditure of these funds by providing the Governor, Secretary of Health and Human Resources, and the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees with a certified audit and full report on initiatives and results not later than October 1 of each year for the preceding fiscal year ending June 30. Also, on or before October 1 of each year, Item 344-E#2 requires VECF to submit to the Governor and the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees a report on the actual amount, by fiscal year, of private and local government funds received by the Foundation. The Foundation provides the Smart Beginnings website as a resource for parents, educators and others interested in early childhood learning.
Virginia Early Childhood Foundation	Smart Beginnings – one of three components to The Alignment Project – is a statewide collaboration with the broad goal of sharing information and efforts to direct new and improved resources to families with children from birth to age five. The initiative highlights the health, social and emotional, and cognitive needs of very young children, and urges partners in every community to plan and partner strategically for a strong early childhood system to meet these needs successfully. It focuses on parent education, including new parent information about early childhood development, and consumer education information for parents regarding selecting and accessing quality child care and preschool programs. Another key component of this initiative is public education messages about the correlation between high quality, early childhood education and a competitive workforce and ultimately a vital economy for the Commonwealth. Commission's involvement: Tracking	The Hayes Hitzeman Foundation, a Richmond-based non-profit organization to raise funds for Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) education and research, has introduced the This Side Up campaign. Started in 2002 by parents whose infant son had died, the Foundation has partnered with Virginia hospitals and now partners with Ukrop's Super Markets, Inc., Ukrop's Dress Express, Pampers, and Smart Beginnings to promote placing babies on their backs for nap or bedtimes.

Social Services	Automation of Day Care Assistance Program – Item 338-L of the proposed 2009-2010 Biennial Budget expresses the General Assembly’s intent that the Department of Social Services automate day care assistance programs. Under this budget, the program will receive $750,000 each year to create the automated management and payment system. The child care subsidy program has grown significantly over the past decade. Expenditures have increased from approximately $9 million in FY1989 to $176 million in FY 2006. In FY 2006, child care assistance was provided to over 61,000 children. The child care program is one of the largest assistance programs administered by the Department of Social Services. Commission’s involvement: Tracking	Budget language requires the Department of Social Services to report on the system’s progress to the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and the Senate Finance Committees, the Secretary of Health and Human Resources and the Department of Planning and Budget by July 1 of each year. Budget language further requires the Department of Social Services to report to the Governor and the General Assembly by October 15 of each year regarding the status of such automation, system adequacy and needed action. The Department’s most recent annual report was published in Fall 2007 by the General Assembly’s Legislative Automated System website as Report Document 277.
Social Services	The Child Day-Care Council (CDCC) is authorized by the Code of Virginia to adopt regulatory standards for licensure and operation of child day care centers in Virginia. Also, in collaboration with the Virginia Recreation and Park Society and the Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse Services, CDCC is charged with promulgating regulations for therapeutic recreation programs. The regulations are to be developed in consultation with representatives of the affected entities and are not to require the adoption of a specific teaching approach or doctrine. The CDCC, which operates under the supervision of the Secretary of Health and Human Resources, is comprised of a minimum of 28 members, appointed by the Governor and representing a variety of interests from around the state. Commission’s involvement: Tracking	CDCC generally meets six times per year. The review process is scheduled to begin again in May 2009, although the Council is considering beginning discussions in March 2009. In May 2007, CDCC released an Opinion/Editorial piece on the review process, inviting public comment.
Social Services	The Virginia Child Care Resource & Referral Network (VACCRRN) is a statewide network of 14-locally based child care resource and referral agencies which assist parents in finding child care that meets their family’s particular needs. Parents can educate themselves with information and data on a variety of child care issues, such as public policy, cost of care, and range of quality at the local, State, and national levels. The network is a member of the National Association of Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies is funded through the Virginia Department of Social Services. Commission’s involvement: Tracking	VACCRRN has become the home of T.E.A.C.H.® (Teacher Education and Compensation Helps), an educational scholarship program for center-based and family child care providers. It was established in 1989 to promote and support quality child care resources throughout Virginia and to coordinate the efforts of more than a dozen agencies. Several VACCRRN member agencies have recently completed a national training program through Zero to Three entitled “Partnering with Parents: Preventing Neglect and Abuse.”

Secretary of Public Safety	Established by Executive Order 15 (2006), Prevention Comes First expands on the original KIDSafe program to promote, throughout the executive branch, the positive development of Virginia's youth, by addressing the risk and protective factors that lead to youth gang recruitment and activity, substance abuse, delinquency, violence, school drop-out, and related adolescent problem behaviors. It coordinates the prevention activities of law enforcement, educators, State and local prevention professionals, and families throughout the Commonwealth. Its initiatives are organized under the direction of the Secretary of Public Safety. Commission's involvement: Tracking	The Executive Order, originally in effect until June 2, 2007, was extended to June 2008. The Prevention Comes First Conference is a one-day conference provides prevention professionals and interested citizens with cutting-edge information and highlights gang prevention/bullying model programs that have proven to reduce bullying and gang membership and activity. An estimated 500 participants representing law enforcement, education, prevention, Commonwealth's Attorneys, and other professionals attend the conference each year.
Secretary of Public Safety	Virginia's Interagency Anti-Gang Workgroup is a subgroup Prevention Comes First. The Prevention Comes First Anti-Gang Workgroup consists of 24 designees from 17 executive branch agencies. Its mission is to cultivate strong collaboration; prioritize, coordinate, and leverage prevention resources; encourage and facilitate wider use of proven prevention programs and strategies; provide training and tools to assist state and local prevention professionals, service providers, and the faith community in assessing needs, targeting resources, and planning services for youth and families; disseminating information on gangs to citizens of the Commonwealth. Commission's involvement: Tracking	The Anti-Gang Workgroup includes representatives from Education, Corrections, Criminal Justice Services, Health, Juvenile Justice, Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse Services, Social Services, State Police, Office of the Attorney General, Commonwealth's Attorneys' Services Council and GOSAP, Virginia Association of Commonwealth's Attorneys, Richmond Behavioral Authority, Virginia Association of Chiefs of Police, Virginia Sheriffs' Association and VCU's Center for School-Community Collaboration.
Secretary of Public Safety	The Parent Guide to Personal Safety for Youth is a product of Prevention Comes First efforts. Due to the popularity of the KidSafe Virginia parent guides, the Governor's Office for Substance Abuse Prevention (GOSAP) recently revised and combined the parent guides. The purpose of the Parent Guide to Personal Safety for Youth is to educate parents on some of the safety threats our children face and assist parents in communicating with their children about personal safety. The topics covered in this guide include: fire safety, internet safety, driving safety, bullying, gangs, inhalant abuse prevention and underage drinking. Commission's involvement: Tracking	Beginning December 15, 2007, parent guides were made available at fire and rescue stations throughout the Commonwealth and at your local DMV office. The parents' guides may also be downloaded at GOSAP's webpage at http://www.gosap.virginia.gov/preventioncomesfirst.htm

Virginia Association of Community Services Boards	Virginia Child and Family Services Council, which is one of six councils of the Virginia Association of Community Services Boards, addresses issues pertaining to service delivery to children and their families. It also provides a forum for information sharing and networking among the respective task force members. The Council collaborates with the Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuses Services and other relevant state agencies to assure consistent policies, protocols, procedures and data collection methods in service delivery and reporting. Commission's involvement: Tracking	The Council meets quarterly, on the first Friday of the month.
Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse Services	The Child and Family Behavioral Health Policy and Planning Committee for Children's Services – Item 315-E of the proposed 2009-2010 Biennial Budget - is the continuing workgroup designated to develop a comprehensive plan for children's services across disabilities. The committee is to develop an integrated policy and plan, including the necessary legislation and budget amendments, to provide and improve access by children, including juvenile offenders to mental health, substance abuse, and mental retardation services. Commission's involvement: Committee Member	Budget language requires the Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse Services to report to the Governor and the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees by June 30 each year. The Committee met March 13 and April 10, 2008 to discuss the direction of 315-E Committee.
Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse Services	Training and Resources for Effective Adolescent Treatment (Project TREAT) Interagency Adolescent Workgroup is a three-year initiative funded through SAMHSA and managed through the Office of Child and Family Services of the Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse Services. Funds were allocated to 15 states and the District of Columbia to increase capacity to meet the complex and multi-faceted needs of youth with a substance use or co-occurring disorder and to provide services that are accessible, culturally competent, comprehensive, and community based. Project TREAT's goal is to develop and improve coordination of substance abuse and/or co-occurring treatment services for adolescents across Virginia. The workgroup, determined to be a critical component of a three-year federally-funded project of the DMHMRSAS, will be tasked with linking relevant agencies and organizations to assess the status of service delivery and to develop strategies to enhance these services. Commission's involvement: Workgroup Member	The workgroup launched an on-line survey of youth services in the Community Service Boards (CSBs) to determine what substance abuse or co-occurring treatment services are available for adolescents and how these services are rendered. Information received will assist DMHMRSAS and Project TREAT staff in addressing the needs of the CSB workforce and their service delivery capabilities. The same survey is being sent to private providers in order to assess the services available in the private sector. Project TREAT is offering CSBs and facilities serving adolescents with technical assistance and training in evidence-based practice for substance abuse or co-occurring disorders. This are provided through a grant application process in a succession of request periods. Project TREAT's offers a statewide series of free trainings sponsored by the Virginia Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation, and Substance Abuse Services (DMHMRSAS), the Mid-Atlantic ATTC and the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). ESCAPE's planning and implementation phases focus on shared risk and protective factors. Commission's involvement: Committee Member	During the 3 rd year of the federal grant, ESCAPE is in the implementation phase of the grant.
Medical Assistance Services	The Child Health Insurance Program (CHIP) Advisory Committee, which was established by the 2005 General Assembly, works to improve outreach and enrollment of FAMIS and to provide input on policies, operations, utilization of services and the health outcomes of children in FAMIS and FAMIS Plus (the state Medicaid program). Commission's involvement: Tracking	As of April 4, 2008 – 88,901 children were enrolled into the FAMIS program, with an additional 351,554 children enrolled into the state Medicaid program.
Health/Medical Assistance Services	A State Leadership Workshop to improve Early Periodic Screening Diagnosis and Treatment (EDPSDT) took place January 7-8, 2008 in Richmond. Through a federal technical assistance grant from the Maternal Child Health Bureau, participants will convene for open discussions about EPSDT in Virginia and other states and to identify best practices that will improve the State's services. Commission's involvement: Participant	News of the workshop is being disseminated throughout Virginia. Registration will open in late Fall.
Health	Section 32.1-46F of the Code of Virginia requires the Board of Health to review vaccines included in the Recommended Childhood and Adolescent Immunization Schedules developed by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices, the Academy of Pediatrics and the American Academy of Family Physicians. It also addresses the minimum vaccine requirements for school and day care attendance. Commission's involvement: Tracking	Since the Board's August 2006 review, meningococcal vaccine for 11 and 12 year old children has been added to the recommendations. Adoption of the recommendation did not require legislative action. Currently no state has a middle school mandate for this vaccine, but the Commissioner has indicated that adding the vaccine as a school requirement would be, in his opinion, good public health practice. Consideration is being given to recommending in 2008 a mandate in Virginia middle schools.
Health	The Virginia Department of Health's (VDH) Commonwealth's Healthy Approach and Mobilization Plan for Inactivity, Obesity and Nutrition (CHAMPION) continues to work towards a comprehensive statewide plan to reduce obesity in Virginia through nutrition and exercise. Commission's involvement: Tracking	Following VDH Family Health Services Review, the working document will be presented to a new State Committee being appointed by the Governor. The completed comprehensive statewide plan is tentatively scheduled to be released by September 30, 2008, although VDH indicates its timeline is by design flexible.

Health	Virginia Early Childhood (VECCS) Comprehensive Systems functions as a statewide strategic planning workgroup with the purpose of supporting state maternal and child health agencies and their partner organizations in collaborative efforts to strengthen early childhood system of services for young children and their families. Although the planning workgroup's work concluded with the official planning phase, plan implementation is 2006-2009. This public/private partnership is part of a five year initiative launched by the federal Maternal and Child Health Bureau (MCHB) to support states' efforts to build comprehensive early childhood systems. Commission's involvement: Tracking	On July 1, 2003, VDH received the initial two-year planning grant, with a budget of $100,000 per year. A workgroup defined five focus areas in the initiative: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Access to medical homes; ▪ Mental health and social-emotional development; ▪ Early care and education services; ▪ Parent education; and ▪ Family support services. On September 25-26, 2006 in Reston, VDH participated along with other state coordinators in a national meeting with the theme of Implementing Comprehensive Systems for Early Childhood. The meeting was organized around the themes of governance, early childhood consultation, financing, and strengthening families. The resulting plan was published by VDH in 2006, and implementation began that year. VDH held a strategic planning meeting on June 13, 2006. VECCS has successfully completed the process of writing the grant for the two-year implementation phase, which has an annual budget of approximately $150,000. The project has seen growth in all five component areas since its inception; however, parent education and data and evaluation have become the primary focuses for the final year of implementation. The funding period for this phase continues through August 31, 2008.
